Opening Thought for Incoming Board Meeting

It is so good to see everyone here today. Our hearts grow lighter as we smile at friends and give hugs.

As we begin a new year "Let Your Light Shine For ESA" in all you do. Let's encourage each other and help each other.

May God bless our new officers as they lead us this year and give them the wisdom to make decisions that will make Georgia shine. The future is as bright as the promises of God.

Have a wonderful day as we share all the great things we have done and continue to do.
