Madame Butterfly, Our President, says...

How High did You fly this Year?

I saw my first butterfly last week. It was yellow and looked so pretty setting on the red Azaleas. It made me smile and know that Spring is here, and our part of the world is waking up from its Winter sleep.

I know that you have been soaring high with your good works. Our year isn't finished yet, don't forget Alpha Delta's Heart of Caring "Evening of Hope" Celebration for St. Jude Children's Hospital scheduled for April 18,2026. Join Alpha Delta and enjoy great food, friendship and great items to bid on. Remember your support will help the children at St. Jude Children's Hospital and their families.

I am so proud of each of our chapters, and all the Georgia membership. Each of you work so hard to support St. Jude Children's Hospital, Easterseals, Hope for Heroes, ESA Foundation, Disaster Fund, and so many of our local charities. Be proud of yourself for all the hard work you do to make life better for those less fortunate and in need.

I have survived Leadership, Fall Board, Mid-Year and am now looking forward to the Georgia State Seventy Sixth Convention at Houndslake Country Club in beautiful Aiken, South Carolina. I can't wait to see what Gamma Omega has in store for us. Where will we land when the time machine spins? Wherever Gamma Omega takes us, I am sure it will be exciting.

This has been an exciting and challenging year for me. Without the support of each of you I couldn't have done any of this. Each of you is truly special in your own way. Your talents are varied and special, your generous hearts know no bounds, and your love and support are what makes the ESA Georgia Council so great. I am proud that you let me serve as your President this year. I have made mistakes, but there has always been someone there to pick me up and offer guidance and encouragement. I want to thank each of you for your support. I am so proud of all that we have accomplished. It takes each one of us to succeed, and I think the Georgia Council Membership has excelled.

I hope that you have sent messages to our IC and SERC GSC Convention Representatives. If you haven't welcomed them, there is still time. Our IC Representative is Angie Butenschoen, IC 1st Vice President/President Elect. Her address is 106 Julie Lane, St. Peters, MO 63376. Our SERC Representative is Sandy Fletcher, SERC Recording Secretary. Her address is 14366 Route E, Pineville MO 64856. Let them know you are happy to have them attend our Seventy Sixth Annual Georgia State Council Convention.

On March 25, 2026, I attended the State President March Zoom Meeting. Here is some information from that meeting. The workshops at IC Convention will be 10-minute Takeaways during the General Assemblies focused on key insight, practical tips, and fun hands-on projects. Each session will concentrate on a specific topic. The workshops will be What Color Are You, Who Would Have Gussed, Mind, Body, and Soul, You Can Be a Star, Friendship Bracelets. I have attached a flyer explaining what each session is.

The IC Service Projects are. Backpacks for Kids who are victims of poverty. The supply list is on the IC website under IC Convention. If you don't want to bring the items with you, the items can be ordered and shipped from Amazon to Virginia. In addition to the list, they would like gift cards from 5 Below, Target, and Amazon.

Easterseals Culinary Connection will have a smoothie bike on site for making smoothies. You must peddle the bike to make your smoothie. Thursday there will be a cooking demonstration by Culinary Connection.

Nominations for Easterseals will be recognized at the Recognition Luncheon. Anyone doing a great job for Easterseals can be entered.

Melissa Diddle, IC Membership Chair gave the categories for the Membership Recognition entries. The Categories are 2025-2026 "You Had to Be There Recognition", 2025-2026 Emerging Flame Recognition, 2025-2026 Membership Innovation Recognition, and 2025-2026 Membership Magnet Recognition. All the entry forms and qualifications can be found on the www.epsilonsigmaalpha.com website. Log in and go to the Member Center, click on Community Membership, and IC Recognition Forms.

If you are entering your educational program for IC judging, we were told that it would be helpful to go to the website and look at the entire form and instructions before starting to fill out any of them.

Jennifer Gailey, Association of the Arts Chair, gave this information. Go to the Association of the Arts google form. There can only be 1 creation per type. Select the Division you are entering on page 2. On the last page upload your photos, add file, click on photo. You can add up to 10 photos per entry. These will go directly to Jennifer. The cutoff date for entry is May 31st. If you have multiple categories, you can submit multiple forms.

The IC Challenge will be on Friday from 4:30 to 6:00. The theme is Mission Impossible. Dress as your favorite spy. Each table will be a team. There will be 5 Mission challenges. When your team successfully completes a mission challenge they can move on to the next mission.

To enter the Challenge, you must raise $200. This money counts towards the 5 million in 4 years to St. Jude. To receive the Mission Challenge T shirt, you must register and get your money in by May 31, 2026.

Entry forms can be found on the IC Website, and B. J. Voll has added some forms on the ESA Facebook page.

I hope this information will be helpful to those who will be attending the IC “Sweet Virginia Breeze Convention” in Norfolk, VA.

In the April issue of Manifest, Jill Shull said that the Newsletter/Bulletin submission process has been updated – including a new timeline. The submission deadline for entering your newsletter for recognition is April 30, 2026. Jill stated that if you are interested in submitting a newsletter or nominating one you admire, follow these steps on the ESA Website.

- Click on Community Membership
- Select Convention Recognition Forms (under IC Convention)
- Scroll down to News Bulletin Recognition
- Choose 2025-2026 News Bulletin Recognition

Jill stated there are two categories available for submission. You can choose one or submit for both categories, depending on what best fits your newsletter. Jill tells more about this on pages 32-33 of the April issue of the Manifest. I forwarded the April issue of the Manifest to the GSC Contacts list on April 4th.

Butterflies Vibes from the Executive Board

Words from First Vice You All Come!

Whew! It has been an adventure preparing for my upcoming year as President. A recent meeting in St. Charles, MO hosted by Angie Butenschoen, our next IC President, was the most recent step. Celeste Webb, with other IC folks, were in attendance showing their support for this first-time event. Most of the states were represented so plenty of time to share ideas and thoughts. We were constantly busy, in a good way, and even took some time off to dress like Mrs. Roper (Three's Company!) with full caftan and wig. We were stand-outs in Old Town, a cute six blocks of small historic buildings with stores, restaurants along with handy ice cream and cookie shops. Some of us will even be seen in a post-wedding photo. Many asked what we were doing and many recognized our outfits. While explaining who we were (using our elevator talk!), some folks even offered a small donation, and we collected over $100 cash for St. Jude; truly an unplanned benefit.

I hope we have a lot of people at our May Convention knowing all the work that is going on to make it special for all of us. Heck, we are even having a Tea Party for our Awards Luncheon!

Please make the effort to attend. Bring a friend that wonders what we do - and know you both will not be disappointed.

See you in May.

Sharron Smoot
1st Vice President

Ready and Excited

April came up really fast – it's Spring and the pollen is heavy. Mosquitoes are out in droves as I weed the garden and plan for this year's plantings. I'm also planning the convention from my perspective. First there's an Executive Board meeting where I will test an updated version of my techno recording device. I think I have all the parts updated with a new mini-San disk and new batteries and new instructions – what could go wrong?

I'm so excited about seeing everyone in my "old" hometown of Aiken. It's a wonderful town and there is so much to see, visit and best of all eat. Please don't miss this opportunity to come early, have some fun, see friends and sit down for a while.

Luanne Langmo, Recording Secretary

Check, Check and Check!

I have checked my list. Have you?

Another Georgia State Council is coming to an end. We have accomplished so much and have weathered lots of changes. But as usual our Council has accepted the challenges that have come before us with grace and style.

I have checked my list of duties found in our bylaws and am happy to say that they will all be checked off with the final ones being completed at our State Convention in Aiken. With your input in providing me with the list of your members who will be honored with their years of service at the annual Service Pin Ceremony and giving me their pins Friday afternoon, one more check will be marked on my list.

My thanks are extended to each member who has provided articles for the JawJa Jonquil, who attended IC Convention, Fall Board, SERC Conference and Mid-Year. Your participation in these events helped me to support President Ruth Ann and this Council.

It has been a pleasure to serve alongside our President Ruth Ann, as she has guided us well this year.

Check! Another article written and another issue of the JawJa Jonquil published, Check and Check!

Joy Lynn Tynes
Corresponding Secretary

Flying by and High

“Just when the caterpillar thought the world was over it became a butterfly.”

This year has flown by. As we approach the end of the year, I kindly ask anyone with a line-item budgeted receipt to turn those in as soon as possible.

I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to have served on the board this year. Congratulations to President Ruth Ann on your guidance and friendship. We are flying high.

Sheryl Gootee
Treasurer

“Light at the End of the Tunnel”

The end of our fiscal year is getting closer every day, and I hope to see the majority, if not all of you, at our Convention in May. There will be Proposed Bylaws and Standing Rules to be voted on at the convention in addition to our Mixer Party, Business Meeting, Installation of the 2026-2027 Executive Board, Celebration of Life and the Awards Presentation.

The Jaw-Ja Guide has been updated and approved by the Executive Board and will soon be on the Georgia website. This has certainly been a challenging year for your Parliamentarian, but there is “light at the end of the tunnel!” In a few days, the Proposed Bylaws and Standing Rules changes will be emailed to each Chapter President, for review with their chapter. Please be sure to discuss the proposal and know how your Chapter wants to vote on each one. The majority of the changes are housekeeping, and we are hoping to proceed at convention as painlessly for all of us as possible!

Take care, stay safe! See you at our Convention!

Gail Marchant
Parliamentarian

Thanks! And There is Still Time!

We are wrapping up another momentous year in ESA. I am very happy to report that many chapters took advantage of our Mid-year Meeting and gave me donations for the Disaster Fund. We now have 10 of our 13 chapters who have donated to the Fund. I am still hoping our last three chapters will contact me with a donation prior to our April 15, 2026, deadline which is when I will tally the winners of the Disaster Fund – Most Monies Per Member Award. Remember there is no form to complete and send to me to enter this award. It is automatic with your donation.

On a sad note, our IC Disaster Fund Chair, Lynda Edwards, sent a report to all State Disaster Fund Chairs at the end of February. Only 17 States have contributed to the Fund with total donations of $11,632.58. This is only a little over the amount for one claim of $8000. So far (end of February) there have been 7 claims nationwide, which is less than the previous year. I realize that the Disaster Fund is still very well-funded, but the lack of any participation by so many States is incredibly sad.

Let us end with a cheery note. I look forward to seeing all of you very soon at our Convention in May. Our Gamma Omega sisters have been working hard for us, and we have beautiful settings to enjoy each other for great weekend.

Jr. Past President/Disaster Fund Chair

Philanthropic Chair

Zooming with The Rainbow Connection

Hello GSC Family,

I have been honored to be our State's SERC Coordinator this year. I would like to remind everyone of The Rainbow Connection: Exploring Personal and Professional Skills to Enhance Well-Being.

The next session will be Wednesday, 4/8 at 5:00 pm (EST). If you would like to register, click on the link in the SERC newsletter on page 3 and submit your information. Closer to the date of each session, you will receive an email with Zoom instructions. If you can't attend at the specified time for each session, the programs will be recorded.

The 2026 SERC Conference will be held at the Holiday Inn, 5711 W. Irlo Bronson Memorial Highway, Kissimmee, Florida, on October 23-24, 2026, and the theme is "Tropical State of Mind." The Registration Form, Ad Form, and information about Bunco for St. Jude are all available on the SERC webpage.

- Registration Fee: $160 (through 10/15/26); $170 (after 10/15/26)
- Room Rates: $109 (cut-off date is 9/23/26)
- Resort Fees: None (the resort fee will be taken off your bill at checkout)
- Parking: Free

Hope to see many GSC faces there 😊

Best,
Susan Garner
GSC SERC Coordinator 2025-2026

Mariposa Magic! from our Chapters

Busy as a DO Girl

Delta Omega Chapter life has been busy for the DO girls. Luanne has been hosting her grandson, Kyle, while he searches for employment online. She loves the time with him and has continued her connection with his twin in Michigan. She has also been working with her quilting group providing quilts for a transitional living situation for homeless vets, bettering their lives in a veteran's village that was formerly a hotel in North Charleston.

Sharon has also continued her work for Veterans on the Aiken County

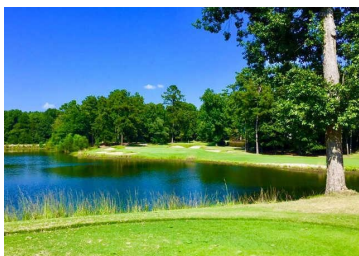

Veterans Council, Fisher House for out-of-town family members visiting their family member in the Augusta VA hospitals, working with the VFW once a month with their fundraising dinners and collecting torn and tattered flags in her home development of over 900 homes which are disposed by her connection at the local American Legion.

Going Higher!

Gamma Omega Chapter is flying high as we prepare for 2026 Convention, "Somewhere in Time." We are out of our comfort zone, but everyone has participated and has been responsible for their duties. Sheryl has remained steadfast as our Chairperson.

We are praying all the re-construction of Houndslake will be completed in time...I tease, for I know it will be! Yes, the high winds we experienced several weeks ago damaged two of Houndslake roofs, ceilings on the inside, and flooring, etc.

Still, Gamma Omega is flying high on cloud nine at the thought that so many of our sisters will be visiting us in Aiken so soon. We are trying to earn our merit among other talented chapters.

Busy with the Good Life in Kappa Rho

It is hard to believe that we are in our final few weeks before convention in Aiken. Kappa Rho's 2025-2026 year has been busy.

June started with installation of officers. July found three members attending International Convention in North Carolina, and three members in beautiful North Georgia for Leadership/Fall Council. Together with Midyear in the Atlanta area and all that wonderful Italian food, all the while, we were also busy traveling around the state helping with three St. Jude Dream Homes. Throughout the year, we have enjoyed helping others. Please look at some of our many meetings, socials, philanthropic projects, and State/IC events during our year. As always, Kappa Rho members know "life is good in ESA." See you in Aiken.

Romanda Talley
President, Kappa Rho Chapter

From a Caterpillar into a Fabulous Butterfly

Your Jaw-Ja Jonquil Newsletter Editors, Ruth Ann, Joy Lynn, and Gennie extend thanks to this Council for all the news that was shared through these newsletters. With your articles we were able to grow from a working caterpillar of information into a butterfly – fabulous and colorful.

Communication is an important part of our Council and by creating our bi-monthly issues, we have been able to share all of the happening in our ESA world.

Again, many thanks to all who made these publications informative and useful!

As this is our last issue, it has been our pleasure to “spread our wings,” and “fly high” with all the good works of this council.

When the spirit of nature touches us, our hearts turn into a butterfly!

Internation Council Membership Recognition Forms

*Links will take you to a google form to fill out (you may need to right click on the link and select open in new tab)

“You Had to Be There” Recognition 2025-2026 You Had to Be There Recognition*

This recognition honors a chapter that didn't just host a recruitment event — they created a moment you truly had to be there to feel. Through creativity, warmth, and mission-driven outreach, they sparked a movement that made joining ESA feel irresistible. Their event became the kind of story people keep retelling, because no description quite captures the energy of being in the room when it happened.

Emerging Flame Recognition 2025-2026 Emerging Flame Recognition*

This recognition celebrates a first-year ESA member who has already ignited meaningful impact within their chapter or community. Their spark may be new, but its glow is unmistakable — a rising flame fueled by purpose, passion, and a genuine commitment to service. Whether through creativity, recruitment, leadership, or heartfelt involvement, this member is already lighting the way for others and showing the promise of a bright ESA journey ahead.

Membership Innovation Recognition 2025-2026 Membership Innovation Recognition*

This recognition honors a state council whose membership workshops or recruitment activities go beyond the ordinary — blending creativity, inspiration, and mission-driven outreach. Their fresh ideas, bold approaches, and standout events reimagine what recruitment can look like, setting a new standard for how ESA grows with heart and imagination. Whether through themed workshops, interactive activities, or innovative strategies, this state didn't just attract attention — they inspired momentum.

Membership Magnet Recognition 2025-2026 Membership Magnet Recognition*

This recognition goes to the ESA member whose energy, authenticity, and outreach drew the most new members into our circle. It honors someone who naturally attracts others through genuine enthusiasm and a welcoming spirit — making ESA feel easy to join, impossible to resist, and even better to belong to.
